

A four-piece from Cambridgeshire playing gritty, groove-driven, blues-inspired alternative rock with plenty of sleaze and swagger.

Formed in 2011, The Mojo Slide draw on garage, rock 'n' roll, blues rock and the British indie of the 80s and 90s. They've released two albums, Twist Your Bones and Manic Panic, plus an acoustic EP and a covers EP, with singles played on Planet Rock, Absolute Radio, Kerrang and the BBC.

In 2026 they opened the main stage at Cambridge Rock Festival, four years after first opening the festival in 2022. They play festivals, pubs and venues across Cambridgeshire and neighbouring counties. Sets are mostly originals with the odd crowd-pleasing cover given added Mojo.
